Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands. In Equity. April Term. 1885. M. GIRSON ET. AL. CONMISSIONERS S CROWN LANDS VS. J. H. SOPER ET. AL.

This cause is an appeal in equity from the decision of Judge McCally.

The object of the plaintiffs is to enjoin the collection of a judgment in favor of Bishop & Co. against the plaintiffs. Crown Land Commissioners—upon an execution which the defendant threatens to levy upon the individual property of one of the plaintiffs, C. H. Judd.

The defendants claim that the plaintiffs are individually liable, and the plaintiffs dany it.

The judgment sought to be restrained was for the breach of a covenant for quiet enjoyment constained in a lease between the Commissioners of Crown Lands of the first part, and H. E. Whitney and J. W. Robertson of the firm of Whitney and Robertson, of the second part. The lease recites that "They, the said part of the first part by virtue of the authority in them vested by the act to relieve the the Reyal domain from encumbrances, and to reader the same unalicinable, approved January 3rd, 1865, have and do lease certain lands in Honolulu to the party of the second part for the term of ten years from January 1st, 1881, at the yearly rental of $806, payable quarterly, and all taxes; which the rent parties of the second part covenant that they will pay to the party of the first part and their successors in office, covenant for the quiet enjoyment successors in office; and the parties of the first part farther, for themselves and their successors in office, covenant for the quiet enjoyment of the land leased, by the party of the second part, and in case of breach of any of the conditions of said lease by the party of second part, they covenant that the party of the first part and their successors in office may reenter." In the body of the lease the names continuance which was allowed and the plaintiff was dismissed. of the Commissioners are not mentioned, and do not appear. The lease is signed by C. H. Judd Commissioner and land agent, by Whit-ney and Robertson by H. E. Whitney, and by H. A. P. Carter and J. S. Walker, Commis-

Crown forever" and that the said lands there-after cannot be lessed for over thirty years, ection 4 provides that the "Commissioner of Crown Lands shall have full power and authority to make good and valid leases of the said lands for any number of years not exceeding thirty; but in no case shall it be lawful to collect the rents on the same for ore than one year in advance, or to receive more than one year in advance, or to receive anything in the nature of a bonus for sign-ing the said losse, and all the rents, profits and emoluments derived from the said lands, after deducting the necessary and proper ex-penses of managing the same shall be for the use and benefit of the reigning Sovereign, and payable by the said Commissioners to the or-der of the King event when a minor, and against C. H. Judd, W. M. Gibsor and J. M. Lapens, Commissioners of Crown Lands, and counts on the lease above quoted from and avers that the defendants are successors in effice of the lessors therein named and that made a question. In some case at had the centry of a sufficient discharge has been made a question. In some case at had the collice of the jessors therein names and that and the said lessors covenanted by their successors in said lessors covenanted by their successors in said that it was; but other cases bold the consenter of the said that the second trary. But the reasonable rule seems to be, that the feeducal prerequisite is only that the for a breach thereof having been waived by these defendants. After trial and verdict for a manner that this cannot be revived, and the plaintiff on Pecember 1st, 1884, judgment was entered that plaintiffs recover of said defend-

From the law and facts as above de-tailed there can be no doubt that the defendants are officers appointed by His Majesty to perform their duty as Crown Land Commis-sioners which are specifically provided for by ante are efficers appointed by His Majesty to perform their duty as Crown Land Commissioners which are specifically provided for by law, and they are, and become thereby public capacity who makes a contract in behalf of the public is not personally liable." Simons w. Hearding and, 1 T. K. 172-181. Freeman vs. Holdmand, 1 T. K. 172-181. Freeman vs. Oits, 9 Mass, 272. Fullum vs. Ishahikasis of West Brookfield, 9 Allen 1-4.

West Brookfield, 9 Allen 1-4.

The focts that the funds are devoted spectrum of the properties of the proper ants $8000 and costs.

The facts that the funds are devoted speclly to the use of His Majesty, makes the commissioners no less public officers. They come and are the agents of the Government the royal state and dignity, and the Legisla-ture assume and the King consents to take away the right of alienation of the land for-

In the cases cited however, it is well set-tled that if the public agent by his interfer-ence prevents the remedy against the Gov-ernment he makes himself answerable; as if engaged to pay expressly in his own name.

If we try the case at bar by this rule, we do no personal agreement or any misconduct on the part of these plaintiffs which retiders them personally liable. They contract under the name which the appointment under the law gives them, that of "Commissioners of Crown Land" and refer to that law for their utherity, and contract for themselves and heir successors, and execute only the leases or the time and on the terms which the law authorizes, and directs, and requires them to do. The covenant on which they are sued is a usual and proper covenant and does not bind them personally but officially, and their individual property cannot be taken on the execution issued herein. Had the plaintiffs given a personal lease it would have been void under the law, and the lease se would have obtained no right under it save to sue at once the defendants personally for damages for a breach of contract. The vidence is plain that the lessees never in evidence is plais that the lessess never intended to rely on the personal security of the plaintiffs or their predecessors.

In Macheath vs. Haddinamd. i T. R. 181 above cited the Court say that "the fund out of which the plaintiff was to be paid was the Treasury." In ordinary cases of the proper action of public officers in contracts, the find from which psymont is to be sought is the Government Treasury. It is not so in this case. Here, by the appropriation of the Legislature, a large property is set apart to be leased for the benefit of His Majesty, and the fund arising therefrom after deducting the necessary and proper expenses of managing the same, shall be paid over to the order of the King. The act requires that the Jeanes the King. The act requires that the leaser shall be made and the fund shall be so devot. ed. The covenants in those leases are their necessary accompaniments and the damages for their breach are a lieu upon the funds arisog from their execution in the hands of the Commissioners. The Legislature so intended and Kamehameha V. consented to it and his present Majesty is bound by it.

Having the fund arising from the leases
His Majesty must bear the burthen which comes from the breach of their covenants. If of the Crown Commissioners, the defendants, such payment is part of the "necessary and stoper expenses of managing" the said land must be paid out of the fund. If such unds should be or hereafter come into the hands of said defendants, to the extent of the

See also Richardson vs. Harding 2 Haw. of it—Science.

See also Richardson vs. the control of the present any question, though scarcely necessary, we think the judgment should be amended by adding thereto the words "to be collected out of the fauds now in the hands of the defendants as Commissioners of Crown Lands." As shown in the opinion below this can be done upon motion in the Supreme Court.

J. T. McChosson vs. W. H. CCMMINGS.

The case comes to us on exceptions by the defendant, to certain refusals of the Court who tried the case, to direct the jury as requested.

The action was case for malicious prosecution, the complaint averring that on the 17th of Jannary last at Hana, island of Manu, the defendant maliciously etc., and without probable cause, caused the plaintiff to be imprisoned on a false charge that plaintiff had committed the effence of using threatening language to the defendant, and caused him to be arrested and brought before the District Justice, whereupon he was admitted to ball to appear on the 19th of January, pursuant to the condition of his bond, and the plaintiff appeared before said District Justice and the defendant did not appear to prosecute said charge, and thereupon the plaintiff, by order of said District Justice was discharged on the said complaint.

to the Justice that he had no evidence in sup-port of the charge, and asked to enter a dis-continuance which was allowed and the plain-tiff was dismissed.

It is claimed on behalf of the defondant that do not appear. The lease is signed by C. H.

Judd Commissioner and land agent, by Whitiney and Bobertson by H. E. Whitney, and by H. A. P. Carter and J. S. Walker, Commissioners of Crown Lands.

The act above referred to creates the office of the "Commissioner of Crown Lands." Section 2 declares that the lands by the act of June 7, 1848 declared to be the private lands of his Majesty Kamehameha III and which have descended to Kamehameha V. "shall be hunceforth unalienable and shall descend to the heirs and successors of the Hawaiian Crown forever" and that the said lands there-was released.

But it is further urged that a discontinuance or solle pros. is not a sufficient ending of the prior suit.

This Court in Stone vs. Huschinson 4 Hawn. 124, said that "the rule requiring it to be shown payable by the said Commissioners to the order of the King, except when a minor," and then invested as the Legislature shall direct for his benefit and except as provided by Section 5, which is new obsolete. Section 6 be shown that the previous action terminated in an acquittal was founded upon the reason that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that the accusation was not false." In that case the prosecution was withdrawn on terms consented to be shown that the previous action terminated in an acquittal was founded upon the reason that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that the previous action terminated in an acquittal was founded upon the reason that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that the previous action terminated in an acquittal was founded upon the reason that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that it cannot be made evident otherwise that the plaintiff would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that it cannot be a supplied to the would not have been convicted, and if he had been convicted it would be evident that it cannot be a supplied to the would not have been convicted it the Board of Commissioners of Crown Lands to consist of three persons two of whom shall be from the King's Cabinot and serve without any remaneration, and the other shall act as land agent, and shall be paid out of the revenues of the said lands, such sum as may be agreed by His Majesty, the King.

The action is brought by Bishop & Co., against C. H. Judd, W. M. Gibson and J. M. Kapena, Commissioners of Crown Lands, and counts on the lands of the lands o

In the case of Cardinal vs. Smith, 100 Mass 158, the Court say: "But if it (the prosecu-tion) is commenced by complaint to a magis-trate who has jurisdiction only to bind over a Milchell vs. Williams, 11 M. and W., 205, Bacon vs. Waters, 2 Allen, 100. "And if the prosecutor, after procuring the arrest, fails to enter any complaint, this with the attending ircumstances is sufficient to be submitted to

In Cordical vs. Small the Court held that the failure of a plaintiff to eater in Court the writ in a civil action, on which he has mali-ciously and without probable cause procured the arrest of the defendant is such a final de-termination of the action as to enable the de-fendant thereupon to sue him for a malicious presecution.

In Brown vs. Randall, 36 Coun., 56, the Court held that it is not necessary to sustain Court held that it is not necessary to sustain an action for malicious prosecution, that the plaintiff should have been acquitted on the criminal proceedings. It is sufficient if the plaintiff was discharged without a trial, by a withdrawal or abandonment of the prosecution, not made at his request or arrangement with him, if the jury shall find on the whole evidence that there was want of probable cause. See also Stanton vs. Hart, 27 Mich., 538. Here a discharge on noise proceeps after efforts to procure a trial was held a sufficient termination of the suit. "The action for malicious prosecution lies whenever the proceeding has come to an end, whatever may be the form of its termination."

We think that the above citations are suffi-cient authority for our holding that the ruling below was correct.

And it makes no difference that the proceeding in this case was upon affidavit of the defendant (if such indeed was made) charging plaintiff with having used threatening lunders.

guage, and the magistrate had jurisdiction only either to discharge plaintiff or order him to give a bond to keep the peace.

In Dennie se. Ryan, 65 N. Y., 385 the Court held that where one makes a false and malicious charge against another, and by means thereof, procurse the indicting and arrest of thereof, procures the indictment and arrest of the latter, it is no defense to an action for ma-licious prosecution that the false accusation did not allege facts constituting the crime charged in the indictment or any other crime

We think the exceptions should be over-ruled. A. S. Hartwell for plaintiff; E. Preston for defendant Honolulu, June 15th, 1885.

See Freeman vs. Cois 9 Mass. p. 272-5.
The liability of the found in these cases is analogous to that of towns and school districts in Massachusetts and New York; st. municipalities, of boards of surpervisors, of the funds of ostates in the hands of trustees and personal representative, in the absence of misconduct or of personal agreement to pay. The liability of trustees and administrators on their personal agreements in matters of the satue or trust, arises justly, because having the estate or trust, arises justly, because having the catate or property in hand it is their own fault if they agree to more than is warranted. Many such cases are clied by the defendants commed but are not in point.

See Comain vs. Colling, 29 Mass. 334-5.
The judgment entered is against the found either by direct action against the town or city or county or by judgment against the arent to touch only the fund in the agents hands.

Saureme Court of the Hawaiian IslandsIn Bance April Term 1885. influence often mischievously applied. By few clumsy tricks and impostures, these man alrouts pass themselves off as sorcerers. No on it was justly thought, was better able to collips their skill and discredit their science than the man of the inexhaustible bottles. One of the man of the inexhauatible bottles. One of the great proteinsions of the marabout was to in-vulnerability. At the moment that a loaded masket was fired at him and the trigger pulled, he pronounced a few cabalistic words, and the weapon did not go off. Hondin detected the trick and showed that the touchhole was plugged. The Arab wizard was furious, and abus his French rival.

"You may revenge yourself," quietly said Houdin. "Take a pistol; load it yourself. Here are bullets. Put one in the barrel, but before doing so mark it with your knife."

The Arab did as he was told.

The Arab did as he was told.

"You are quite certain new," said Houdin,
"that the pistol is loaded and will go off. Tell me, do you feel no remorse in killing me thus, notwithstanding that I authorize you?"

"You are my enemy," coldly replied the Arab. "I will kill you."

Without replying, Houdin stuck an apple on the point af a knife, and calmly gave the word to fire. The pistol was discharged, the apple to fire. The pistel was discharged, the appl flew far away, and there appeared in its place stuck on the point of the knife, the bullet the marabout had marked. The spectators resained mute from stupefaction. The mara bout bowed low before his superior.

"Allah is great!" he said. "I am vanquished."

Instead of the bottle from which, in Europe lobert Houdin poured an endless stream every description of wine and liquor, he call fer an empty bowl, which he kept continual full of boiling coffee; but lew of the Ara se failure of the defendant to appear and prosecute the charge, or his unwillingness, if prescent, to give testimony signins the plaintiff.
